From Springer : Tourism and Migration: New Relationships between Production and Consumption (GeoJournal Library) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Tourism and Migration: New Relationships between Production and Consumption (GeoJournal Library):

This book makes an innovative contribution to understanding the relationships between tourism and migration. It explores the many different forms of tourism-migration relationships, paying attention to both the global processes of change and the contingencies of place and space. The book provides an extensive guide to the relevant literature as well as case studies from a diverse range of countries and discusses the significance of the Caribbean, Chinese, and Vietnamese diasporas.
